

The Sheboygan Yacht Club December 2020

Commodore's Comments

There is little debate that the Pandemic totally dominates activity and conversation at the club. The infection rate continues to run rampant through out the county and controls what we can, and cannot safely do. State and county Emergency Orders, Health Alerts, and Executive Orders guide decisions to cancel large in-person meetings and restrict social gatherings and parties. And yet, just like sailing out on the lake, we adjust and adapt. The work of the club goes on.

The entire staff, especially Sean, Chef, Melissa, and Kori continue to outdo themselves with hard work, persistence, and creativity to keep the club running efficiently. Sunday breakfast is a new idea that has been a quick success. Chef will continue to introduce new specials to keep things fresh. With the sun setting so early in the day, breakfast is a great way to enjoy a delicious meal and take advantage of our wonderful view of the lake. With luck you will see one of the many flocks of geese fly by as they continue to migrate south.

Take-home Thanksgiving dinner was another idea many enjoyed since the virus restricted travel plans and family gatherings. It was a nice service for members unable to meet with family to still enjoy the traditional turkey dinner. In a similar fashion, plans are being finalized to pay respect to our traditional Tom and Jerry party. Normally the grand kickoff to the holiday season, state and county guidelines prohibit hosting our spectacular buffet event. We will have takeout dinner specials including take home Tom and Jerry drinks to maintain the tradition. The option of dining in the club will also be available.

We have not held a club membership meeting for several months, and it doesn't look like one will be held in December. The officers and board continue to meet in zoom meetings to conduct club business, and many of our committees do the same. The web committee deserves special recognition for developing virtual sign up programs to allow members to schedule Pier Watch and Snow Removal duties. Details are being finalized as I write, but this online "clip board" will help members and especially apprentices sign up for work hours.

Please come down and enjoy your club through the Holidays. The decorating committee has created a beautiful festive atmosphere for you to appreciate. We can bend to the virus and clean hands, wear a mask, social distance, and still enjoy the club and the Holidays. Remember to take extra precautions and keep ourselves, and our staff healthy.

I sincerely wish you the very best and healthy Holiday season. Merry Christmas and a safe and healthy New Year. I remain absolutely positive that the New Year holds the promise of being a great year!

Stay safe and be healthy,

~Commodore Tom
